I, _____(first and last name), as an applicant for participation in the GOLDEN LYRE International Music Competition for Young Musicians 2027, organised by the Vienna Beethoven Group of Beethoven Conservatory of Vienna GmbH ("Organiser"), hereby provide the following consents and declarations:

Organiser / Data Controller:

1. Audio, Video and Photographic Recordings

I consent to the creation of audio recordings, video recordings, photographs and other recordings in connection with the competition, including performances, rehearsals, interviews, award ceremonies and related activities.

I consent to the use, reproduction, publication, distribution, broadcasting, making available to the public, communication to the public and archiving of such recordings by the Organiser for the purposes of organising, promoting, documenting and reporting on the competition and maintaining an archival record of its activities.

Such materials may be published, in particular, on the Organiser's website, social media channels, video and audio platforms, in printed materials, press coverage, promotional materials and other media related to the competition.

Such use is intended primarily for organisational, promotional, documentary and archival purposes. Where materials are used in connection with commercial activities or third-party commercial projects, the Organiser will obtain any additional rights or permissions required by applicable law.

2. Withdrawal of Consent

This consent is voluntary and may be withdrawn at any time with future effect by written notice to the Organiser. Withdrawal of consent does not affect the lawfulness of processing or use carried out before the withdrawal was received.

Requests concerning withdrawal of consent should be sent to golden_lyre_competition@beethovengroup.at

Where recordings or other materials have already been lawfully published or distributed before withdrawal, they may remain in existing archives, printed publications, media reports, recordings and third-party platforms where removal is not reasonably possible. Withdrawal of consent does not require the Organiser to recall or destroy materials that have already been lawfully published or distributed.

3. Personal Data

The Organiser, acting as data controller, processes personal data necessary for the administration, organisation and implementation of the competition, including, where applicable, the participant's name, date or year of birth, contact details, country of residence, competition category, repertoire, competition results, photographs, audio and video recordings, biographical information and correspondence relating to the competition.

The Organiser may process personal data for the purposes of administration, organisation, implementation, documentation, promotion and the lawful operation of the competition.

Depending on the particular processing activity, the legal basis may be the performance of the participant's registration or participation, compliance with legal obligations, the Organiser's legitimate interests, or the participant's consent where consent is required or relied upon.

Personal data may be disclosed, where necessary for the purposes described above, to service providers, Jury members, partners, public authorities and other entities involved in the organisation or operation of the competition.

Where external service providers process personal data on behalf of the Organiser, the Organiser will take the measures required by applicable data protection law.

If personal data is transferred to recipients outside the European Economic Area, such transfer will take place only where permitted under applicable data protection law and subject to the safeguards required by law.

4. Data Protection Rights

Subject to the applicable legal requirements and limitations, participants have the right to request access to their personal data, rectification of inaccurate data, erasure of personal data, restriction of processing and, where applicable, data portability.

Where processing is based on consent, consent may be withdrawn at any time without affecting the lawfulness of processing carried out before withdrawal.

Where processing is based on the Organiser's legitimate interests, participants may have the right to object to such processing.

Requests concerning personal data may be addressed to the Organiser at golden_lyre_competition@beethovengroup.at

Participants also have the right to lodge a complaint with the competent data protection supervisory authority.

5. Competition Results and Public Information

I acknowledge that participation in the competition may result in the publication of information concerning my participation and competition results, including my name, competition category, prize or distinction received and, where applicable, information concerning participation in the Laureates' Gala Concert.

Such publication may form part of the official documentation, reporting and promotion of the competition.

6. Compliance with Competition Regulations

I confirm that I have read and understood the Competition Regulations and agree to comply with them.

The Organiser may exclude participants from the competition in cases of serious or repeated violations of the Competition Regulations or inappropriate conduct that adversely affects the integrity, reputation, safety or proper conduct of the competition.

7. Liability

The Organiser shall not be liable for injury, loss, damage or accident occurring in connection with participation in the competition, except to the extent that such liability arises from intentional or negligent conduct by the Organiser or persons for whom it is legally responsible, or where liability cannot lawfully be excluded or limited.

8. Data Retention

For applicants who are not selected for further participation, personal data will be retained only for as long as necessary for the selection process and related administrative purposes and will be deleted no later than two years after the respective edition of the competition, unless a longer retention period is required by law or is otherwise permitted by law.
